AFFIDAVIT

David M. Geshwind being duly sworn deposes and says:

1. I am a co-inventor of the invention entitled "A Method to Convert Motion Pictures for Three-Dimensional Systems", and I submit this affidavit in support of applicants' petition for a serial number and reconstruction of the file.

2. I prepared the patent specification for the above named invention.

3. On December 1, 1986, I brought three copies of the specification to the office of Anthony Handal, my patent attorney and co-inventor of this invention, one of which was date-stamped by his office and retained by me. A copy of that date-stamped specification is attached hereto.

4. Soon after December 1, 1986, I was informed by Mr. Handal that a copy of the specification referred to above had been mailed by his office to the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

5. I have been further informed by Mr. Handal that the Patent and Trademark Office returned a postcard acknowledging the filing of that specification.

I further declare that all statements made herein of my own personal knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the above referenced application or any patent issuing thereon.
